DAVID STEVENS ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR SPOKANE SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

“Because the people of Spokane deserve a judge that knows the law and isn’t afraid to make the tough decisions, I am running for Superior Court.” Dave Stevens

(Spokane, Wash.) David Louis Stevens y Perez (David Stevens) has announced his candidacy seeking election to Spokane Superior Court Department 10.

David has the specific legal experience, judicial temperament, impartiality, communication style, and work ethic to be a good judge. We need experienced attorneys like David to make the tough decisions on the bench. As a prosecuting attorney, David has done more than one hundred jury trials, argued hundreds of motion hearings, and prosecuted thousands of cases. Spokane is safer because of the work he does.

David’s record demonstrates his unwavering integrity that will make him an outstanding judge. He has a passion for justice and the record to prove it. Dave has done more than one hundred jury trials. David works hard as a deputy prosecutor and as a judge, he’ll work hard for our community.

David Stevens, 45, is currently a Deputy Prosecutor for Spokane County. After high school, he joined the Navy and served aboard the USS Camden (AOE-2) in Bremerton, Washington. In 1988, he was awarded the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal as well as the Meritorious Unit Commendation Medal. After an Honorable Discharge, he attended the University of Washington earning a Bachelor of Arts degree. After college, David worked as a Civil Rights Investigator for the Department of Housing and Urban Development Fair Housing Enforcement. David made sure that families were not denied housing because of race, religion, disability, or other protected class. David went on to get his law degree from the University of Washington. David has been a prosecuting attorney since graduating from law school. He currently works in the Property Unit where he specializes in prosecuting career criminals.

David is married to the former Pamela Zierdt of Spokane. They have three children, Ezekiel (23), Sarah (11) and Miriam (10). They attend St. Peter Lutheran Church.

David Stevens has filed campaign announcement documents with the Washington Public Disclosure Commission. His filings can be viewed at www.pdc.wa.gov. More information will be available on his campaign website: DavidStevens.org
